I am so sorry to hear that John has passed away. I had an opportunity to work next to him for the nearly two years I was at BMJ. He always had a ready laugh that I will not forget. Jolly would be a good word for it. Although you may not remember, Joann you and John had me over on two New Years eves when my family was out of town. John would not hear of me being home alone. Both you and John were such great hosts. Please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Alan Boyer##imported-end##
