

Hector Hyslop

JUN 4, 1917 - APR 11, 2008

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Hector Hyslop

JUN 4, 1917 - APR 11, 2008

Hector J. "Scotty" Hyslop age 90 of St. Clair passed away on Friday, April 11, 2008. He was born June 4, 1917 in Glasgow Scotland, to the late Walter Grieve Hyslop and Agnes Bilsland Dobson. Scotty went to Hillhead High School, Glasgow School of Art and West of Scotland Commercial College, affiliated with Glasgow University. He served in the RAF during WWII and while on short duty in Canada, visited New York City, where he met Frances E. Heise, hostess at the Carnegie Hall Canteen for Allied Personnel. At the conclusion of the war he returned to the United States and married Frances E. Heise at Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island.

Scotty worked for the New York Times and McGraw Hill Publishing Co., He joined the Diamond Crystal Salt Co, then a division of General Foods Corp.,.

He retired as VP of Sales and Marketing after 34 years of Service. He served on the United Fund Board, was a past President of the Local Chapter of the National Association for the Mentally Ill, a senior warden and vestry member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, St. Clair., and member of the St. Clair Investment Club and a Industrial Conference Board Participant.

Scotty is survived by his wife Frances, daughter Heather Senga Hyslop and son Duncan Brian Hyslop. He was preceded in death by sisters Margaret Waddell and Nancy Wylie.

Visitation Friday from 6-9 PM in the L.C. Friederichs & Son Funeral Home.

In state Saturday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church from 10:30 till service at 11 AM Rev. Glenn Stone officiating. Memorials may be made to St. Paul's Church

Tribute Wall

Hector Hyslop

JUN 4, 1917 - APR 11, 2008

Anonymous posted:

Have many fond memories of Scotty. It was his retirement that prompted the Company to move me to marketing and that launched my senior management career in the salt industry. My deepest sympathies.##imported-begin##G. Richard Thompson##imported-end##

October 27 at 6:00 AM

Anonymous posted:

Your steady hand, on the tiller of the Diamond Crystal ship, carried us through many good times. May the wind always be at your back in the great ocean beyond. Lynne and I loved you very much as a friend and mentor.##imported-begin##Lynne and Art Armstrong##imported-end##

October 27 at 6:00 AM

Anonymous posted:

we are truly sorry to read about "Scottys" passing.again out sympathies. Bruce & Dianna Banning##imported-begin##Bruce & Dianna Banning##imported-end##

October 27 at 6:00 AM

Anonymous posted:

Dear Frances:Doris and I were saddened to read of the death of Scotty. Please accept our condolences and prayers. He was one of God's precious souls who loved the Lord and served Him faithfully in the church we all love and a dear friend. May god be with him and you until you meet again in His Heavenly mansion.Canon Roy and Doris Lees##imported-begin##Canon Roy Lees##imported-end##

October 27 at 6:00 AM

Anonymous posted:

Dear FranI was so sorry to learn of Scottie's passing. I will remember his wonderful smile and easy laugh. I have many memories of him from Formal Dance Club days. He will be missed.My deepest sympathy to you and your family.Pat##imported-begin##Mrs. Patricia Schwarz##imported-end##

October 27 at 6:00 AM

Tribute Wall

Hector Hyslop

JUN 4, 1917 - APR 11, 2008

Anonymous posted:

Heather,I remember your dad as being the ultimate gentleman, soft-spoken and kind. My thoughts are with you in your sorrow.Pat (Doktor) Kingsbury##imported-begin##Pat Kingsbury##imported-end##

October 27 at 6:00 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Hector by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit