Dear Art, I was sorry to hear about your Mom. I can remember when I was in grade school she helped my mother make me a couple of costumes for the Christmas plays we used to have. Do you remember when we used to be in them? I always liked going over to your place with my mother to visit. Donna still lives in the same house and Ed and I built a house right next door. We hope to get a chance to see you some day. Again we were sorry to hear about your Mom. Beverly (Cook) Carroll##imported-begin##Beverly (Cook) Carroll##imported-end##
