What can you say about a most gracious lady that lived the essence of Christ's message - one of unselfish giving, of caring, and of sharing. Ida walked the walk - she didn't talk the talk. I never felt that I was a son-in-law but rather a son. She accepted me as "one of her own" and joyed in our teasing and our pet. I could never tell a "mother-in-law" joke because "Gram's" was simply too gracious a lady. She left many footprints on my heart - and I'm sure on the hearts of others. You will truly be missed Gram's. Love, Lon###imported-begin##Lon Luty###imported-end##
