I was so deeply saddened by the passing of Nancy who I recently got to know. I have wonderful memories of last summer with Nancy and friends swimming in Muscamoot Bay. She always had a smile on her face and when I think of her it puts a smile on my face. My heart goes out to Jim, friends and family during this difficult time. She is in heaven with Jesus.##imported-begin##Elaine Parlier##imported-end##

Dear Linda, Lilly, Jim, Scott and Amanda. You all are in my prayers and thoughts. I will always remember the summers at your folks house out in the country and how Nancy always wanted to tag along with us Linda. Good memories. I just want you all to know that "one of the most beautiful flowers in your garden is gone...but O'h that fragrance remains and we will always remember" Many Blessings and much Love during these days. Nancy truly will be missed indeed. She brought smiles to those who had the pleasure to have known her. May God bring His peace & comfort to the family & friends through the days that lie ahead. Let us remember our good times spend through tears & laughter knowing she is spending Christmas with Jesus, along with all loved ones who have gone before her. Christ is the way, the truth & the Light, only He can hold us during this time of such sorrow when we receive Him into our hearts.
