To the entire Leverenz family, your dad, grandfather, great grandpa is the last of the neighborhood where we grew up. All parents loved us enough to encourage and discipline us when we needed it. Your grandpa was a very hard-working man who did love his family very much. Always had a smile and a greeting for you when he saw you. I know you will all miss him very much! My prayers For your family in the coming months as you grieve your loss.

My husband worked with Mel in the Research Department at Diamond Cyrstal Salt.What a happy and caring Mel was, but serious about his work.Your mother was delightful and loving. I remember how very excited she was whentheir house had her favorite color put on it: :-)Whenever we drove out to their house in St. Clair, we knew it would be full of love and laughter. They were great hosts when we visited them in Florida....you talk about two happy people! We could only stay one day/night because they were so popular, they hadmore people coming in to visit!! I know how sad you must be, but I suspect you are also rejoicing because the two ofthem are now back together again.I am smiling as I write this message remembering all they did and were.Weren't we all lucky to have them in our lives!Marilyn and Bill Chandler....now living in Arizona
