“ Mary was selfless, loving, caring, funny, one of the most brilliant people I knew, and most of all genuine. My heart aches at the loss of one of my very best friends. I was blessed to be able to call her my friend for the past 17 years. She was always there for me, she was always there for everyone. She was one of the kindest people I have ever met, and I am going to miss her great smile, boisterous laugh, and her sense of humor...she was funny, so darn funny, and we shared a sick sense of humor that only her, and I understood at times. I'm so blessed to have so many wonderful memories with such a wonderful human being. She got me through many dark times, and I am at a loss...my friend is gone, and the world will never be the same without her. She was so passionate, and she loved with her whole heart. If you knew Mary, loved Mary, and where loved by Mary you were truly blessed. I can't believe she is gone, I am truly saddened, and I am sad for everyone who loved her. She was the best. Mary, I love you very much, and it hurts knowing I will never see you, or hear your voice again. I can't say this enough...she is a beautiful soul, and the World was a much better place with her in it. Life will never be the same. She is at peace now. I will never forget her, and will cherish our time together forever and always. Rest easy my friend. I love you

“ My sister of the heart, my Wicked Naughty sister, my twin from another mother, Mary was my best friend. Her leaving leaves a huge hole in my life. I will remember all the good and evil times we had together. The road trips, adventure in the SCA and at Ren fests.ohh the troubles we got into...what fun we had... la sigh.

“ I met Mary in choir at SCHS and benefited from her friendship and humor in that class and later in Journalism. She was there when another classmate and I were working on a music video project for art class and she was always a good listener and willing to give thoughtful advice. I saw Mary in passing when she was working with a vendor at Michigan Renaissance Festival about 10 years ago and saw the same kindness that I remembered from high school. My condolences to her friends and family. - Steve

“ She was my best friend throughout our childhood, adolescence and young adulthood. I will always remember her independent spirit and sense of humor. Her kindness and compassion for people and animals in need were her greatest gifts. Peace to her and the Fleury family. Love Joanne

“ Mary has always been there for me amidst all my struggles, victories, losses, and spiritual struggles. Even if we weren't in touch I always felt a heart connection to her. Her storytelling abilities were a source of joy and fun for all who lived her. Most touching to me is the night she held a special ritual in which she adopted Dami and me as sisters. I will miss her terribly and I will always remember her farewells. They were always signed, "Love ya Sis". I love her and part of my heart always will. Rest peacefully Mary. Love ya Sis, now and forever.

“ Merry Meet!

Wow! I had no idea Mary had passed away last year. It's April 23, 2018, and I'm shocked that I was never notified of her passing.

Let me state emphatically to Mary's family that I'm sorry to hear of Mary's untimely demise and that my condolences are given to her family. I know what it's like to lose someone in your family. My father passed away on February 11, 2011, and there was a huge funeral, and there were two visitation services for friends and family. As a Barnett, I am saddened to hear about Mary's death, but she did enjoy her life from what I remember.

She was a reverend of a church called the Sanctuary of the Sacred Grove in Flint, Michigan, where I attended nearly weekly. My ex-girlfriend Tara and I went to the Church and saw the beauty of the services and the respect that many people had for Mary. It was really nice, loving, and with lots of comforts.

Later, Mary retired from the church and the last I heard was that she was entering in a different phase of her life. After that, I heard nothing else, except for what I just found out now. I wish her family lots of warm and loving smiles and just know that she is at peace with her God and Goddess, and she is resting and spending her soulful time in the Summerland. She was a wonderful person of great character, with whom I never had a problem and never had a great disagreement.

If anyone wants to reach me, you may do so at ToddAndrewBarnett@gmail.com or Nightseeking.Bear@gmail.com. I am an ordained minister as Mary was, and I will cast a spell in her honor and begin a series of incantations in honor of her revered spirit.

May the God and Goddess bless you and be with you. Merry Part and, for what it's worth, Brightest Blessings!

Brightest Blessings,

Rev. Todd Andrew Barnett a.k.a. Nightseeking Bear
